Enhanced Features

The retirement you've imagined—As soon as you log in to your account, you get a clear picture of the progress you've made toward reaching your retirement income goal. At first glance, you will see a Retirement Summary of all your account details including your vested balance, all year-to-date contributions, a Personalized Rate of Return, and your estimated income at retirement. This page also provides direct links to advice and guidance products and services offered through your retirement plan.

Develop a plan—The redesigned interactive Retirement Income Calculator is located right on your single-page dashboard. The total shows your current vested balance for all the retirement plans you have with John Hancock, your estimated Social Security benefit*, and other accounts that will be part of your income at retirement. It also identifies whether or not you may have a gap in reaching your retirement income goal.

Choose Retirement Modeling to experiment and find different ways to eliminate that gap. Update My Goals & Assumptions to add outside accounts such as a pension, and to set a retirement goal that you can compare with your projected retirement income.

One-click navigation—The Menu opens to reveal all the sections and pages of the website. Every option needed to help you manage your retirement plan account is easy to find and quick to access. Look under Statements & Reporting for contractor statements you want to review.*

Recent Updates

A focus on you—Because your financial situation is unique to you, mylife.jhrps.com includes my best next step. This is a personalized action that you can take immediately to help get ready for retirement, one step at a time. Each suggestion helps to simplify many of the complex decisions you need to make today in order to prepare for the future.

Self-paced learning—Whether you are just starting out or nearing retirement, My Learning Center has the tools and information to help you along the way. This section is loaded with on-demand videos, links to interactive calculators, and educational articles that provide the knowledge you need to plan with confidence.

These are just a few of the great things you will experience when you log on to the enhanced mylife.jhrps.com website. These upgrades don't affect your retirement plan account balance, or how you request plan documents, access investment information, or make changes. Transactions and processes remain the same.

Go ahead—take some time to explore the website today.
